Early Graduation Scholarship Grant (EGSG)

Arizona's Early Graduation Scholarship Grant (EGSG) Program is designed to encourage high school students who graduate early to promptly attend a regionally or nationally accredited Arizona postsecondary institution or vocational program.

A student, who graduates at least one year early and enrolls full-time at an eligible Arizona postsecondary institution, may receive up to $2,000 towards tuition, fees and books.

A student, who graduates at least one semester early and enrolls full-time, may receive up to $1,500.

STUDENT ELIGIBILITY

- Graduate from an Arizona charter school or public high school at least one semester earlier than your cohort class is scheduled to graduate
- Achieve passing scores on all required components of the Arizona Instrument to Measure Standards (AIMS)
- Reside in Arizona and have been a resident for at least the past twelve months

MAINTAINING ELIGIBILITY

- Student must meet the satisfactory academic progress requirements set by the postsecondary institution to remain eligible for the EGSG program.
- Student must successfully complete each period of enrollment before the next payment can be disbursed.

CRITERIA FOR ELIGIBLE INSTITUTIONS AND VOCATIONAL PROGRAMS

Postsecondary institutions must be:

- In the state of Arizona
- Regionally or nationally accredited
- Vocational programs must be at least eight months in duration

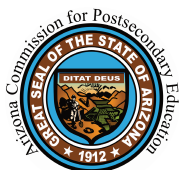

Eligible postsecondary institutions include all three Arizona public universities, community colleges, private postsecondary institutions and vocational schools.
